Antonella Carminatti and Pedro Tavares, partner and associate in BMA's Intellectual Property practice, are attending the 2025 International Trademark Association (INTA) Leadership Meeting, held in Hollywood, Florida.

During the event, Antonella will be appointed as a member of the INTA Board of Directors, a position she will hold for the next three years. On this occasion, Pedro Tavares will be appointed Chair of the Latam & Caribbean Subcommittee of the Trademark Office Practices Committee.

The meeting brings together representatives from law firms, corporations, government agencies, and other leading professionals in the intellectual property field to discuss strategic issues and strengthen the association's global initiatives.

The participation of our team reinforces BMA's commitment to engaging in the key discussions that shape the future of the practice in the international legal landscape.
