BMA wins international recognition as a “Pro Bono Leading Lights 2019”

05.02.2020 1 min read

BMA was highlighted for our pro bono work in Latina America in the "Pro Bono Leading Lights 2019" survey organized by Latin Lawyer in conjunction with the Vance Center. The recognition achieved by our firm is the fruit of our BMA InspirAção initiative, which offers free legal services to organizations in need, with the aim of promoting fair access to justice and generating positive impacts for our society.

Click here to read the full report.