Recognition

Once again, our women practitioners have been highlighted by Análise Advocacia Mulher. The 2024 edition recognizes the work of 24 BMA lawyers in 42 categories, covering practice areas, economic sectors, and Brazilian states.

Our recognized practitioners are: Adriana Dib Fuzinato, Ana Paula Reis, Anna Carolina Malta Spilborghs, Antonella Carminatti, Barbara Rosenberg, Camila Goldberg, Camilla Paoletti, Cibelle Linero, Cristiana Moreira, Fernanda Tanure, Letícia Pelisson, Lígia Regini, Luciana Celidonio, Luciana Marsal, Luiza Lacerda, Marcela Abras Lorenzetti, Maria Amaral de Almeida Sampaio, Monique Mavignier, Patrícia Oliveira Ferrari Sabino, Raquel Mansanaro, Tatiana Amorim, Tatiana Dratovsky Sister, Thais de Barros Meira e Vivian Casanova.

For the third consecutive year, our Competition partner Barbara Rosenberg was named the most admired woman lawyer among Brazil's full service firms.

The Women edition of Análise Advocacia aims to promote diversity and gender equity by recognizing the value of women's contribution to the legal market. Women now represent 59% of BMA's team, and play a fundamental role in the firm's growth and leadership and the formation of new generations of lawyers.

Our congratulations and thanks to all our women practitioners and other professionals, who contribute every day to building an equitable and welcoming environment.
