Recognition Hermano Barbosa

For the fourth consecutive year, we have been highlighted in Chambers High Net Worth, a guide to the top practitioners and law firms in the area of Private Wealth Law. Once again, BMA is recognized as a reference for excellence and is ranked in Band 1.

Sources note that BMA is "an exceptional firm" and that "they have a great team with very skilled lawyers." One market source comments: "In my opinion BMA is the best law firm to work with in Brazil, not only because of their strong team but also because they know how to deal with ultra high net worth clients, understanding their needs and knowing how to manage their expectations."

In preparing the guide, Chambers conducts an extensive survey of clients and peers that assesses technical legal knowledge, diligence, market vision, and service quality.

BMA partner Hermano Notaroberto Barbosa was also recognized for the excellence of his work, ranked in Band 1 of the guide.

What they say about our specialist:

"He is an unbelievable lawyer", according to a source, who adds: "He is one of the foremost lawyers in the private wealth space. He is a brilliant lawyer, he is exceptionally smart and he is amazing - everywhere he goes he is respected and admired."

Hermano has considerable experience in tax and estate planning matters. Several interviewees highlight his ability to communicate complex matters to clients, with one interviewee noting: "I think Hermano's strength is his ability to translate very complex topics into very easy to understand language for clients - this is a real skill."
