Recognition

Once again, BMA is highlighted in Chambers Brazil: Contentious, Chambers and Partners' guide to the country's top lawyers and law firms.

We have been ranked in eight practice areas, with 20 practitioners named in the guide. For the first time in Chambers Brazil: Contentious, our partners Camilla Paoletti (Competition), Iara Conrado Ferreira (Dispute Resolution), Luiza Ferreira Sampaio de Lacerda (Tax), Bernardo Cascão (Competition), Maurício Faro (Tax) and Pedro Frankovsky Barroso (ranked for the first time in Intellectual Property), along with our associate João Bonvicino (Compliance, Investigations and Regulatory Enforcement) have been recognized.

BMA has been ranked in the following practice areas: Bankruptcy/Restructuring, Competition/Antitrust, Dispute Resolution: Arbitration, Dispute Resolution: Litigation, Intellectual Property: Patent, Intellectual Property: Trademark, Copyright & Trade Secrets, Labour & Employment: Highly Regarded and Tax: Litigation: Highly Regarded.

Our practitioners highlighted in the guide are: André Abbud, Antonella Carminatti, Barbara Rosenberg, Bernardo Cascão, Camilla Paoletti, Cibelle Linero, Eduardo Guimarães Wanderley, Felipe Evaristo Galea, Gustavo Santos Kulesza, Iara Conrado Ferreira, João Bonvicino, José Inácio Almeida Prado Filho, Luiz Fernando Fraga, Luiz Marcelo Figueiras de Góis, Luiza Ferreira Sampaio de Lacerda, Marcos Antonio Tadeu Exposto Jr, Mauricio Faro, Pedro Frankovsky Barroso, Pedro Oliveira da Costa and Sérgio Savi.

We congratulate all our professionals on this recognition. BMA's consistent, notable presence in this guide is the fruit of our dedication to excellence in the services we provide, and the trust given to us by our clients every day.

Since 2021, Brazil has its own guide, and no longer be part of the Latin American edition. Chambers Brazil is divided into differents parts: Chambers Brazil: Contentious, released today, Chambers Brazil: Industries & Sectors, Regions, and Chambers Brazil: Transactional, which will be released along this year.
