

BMA is recognized in Chambers Brazil: Contentious 2024

04.04.2024 1 min read

Authors

Antonella Carminatti

Pedro Frankovsky Barroso

Topics

Recognition

Once again, we have won recognition in Chambers Brazil: Contentious guide, which lists the country's main law firms with litigation practices in different areas of the law. We have been ranked in 8 practice areas, with 23 practitioners named in the guide.

Our partner Fernanda Nasciutti (Labour/Employment), and our lawyer Luiz Antonio Galvão (Competition/Antitrust), appeared for the first time in the guide. The new edition of the guide also marks the inclusion of the Social Security table, a new area researched by the publication which, in its debut, recognized the expertise of our partner Vivian Casanova.

BMA is listed in: Bankruptcy/Restructuring, Competition/Antitrust, Dispute Resolution: Arbitration, Dispute Resolution: Litigation - The Elite, Intellectual Property: Patent, Intellectual Property: Trademark, Copyright & Trade Secrets, Labour & Employment: The Elite and Tax: Litigation - The Elite.

And the BMA practitioners highlighted in the guide are: André Abbud, Antonella Carminatti, Barbara Rosenberg, Bernardo Cascão, Camilla Paoletti, Cibelle Linero, Eduardo Wanderley, Felipe Galea, Fernanda Nasciutti, Gustavo Kulesza, Iara Conrado, José Inacio Ferraz de Almeida Prado Filho, Lúgia Regini, Luciana Celidonio, Luiz Antonio Galvão, Luiz Fernando Fraga, Luiza Lacerda, Marcos Exposto, Maurício Pereira Faro, Pedro Frankovsky Barroso, Pedro Costa, Sergio Savi e Vivian Casanova.

Congratulations to all on this achievement! Our significant presence in leading directories is the result of our dedication to excellence and our clients' confidence in our work, for which we are truly grateful.

Click here to see the entire ranking.

› PROFESSIONALS

Professionals who combine legal insight and market perspective

Antonella Carminatti

Pedro Frankovsky Barroso