

BMA stands out at the Women in Business Law Americas Awards 2026

01.06.2026 1 min read

Topics

Recognition

In addition to the firm's recognition, Barbara Rosenberg, partner in BMA's Competition practice, was named Latin America: Antitrust/Competition Lawyer of the Year.

Organized by Legal Benchmarking Group, the Women in Business Law Americas Awards 2026 recognize firms and practitioners who are advancing female leadership in the legal profession, as well as outstanding work across different areas of business law.

BMA was represented at the awards ceremony, held in New York City, by Thaís Ruggeri Gianscotti, a member of the firm's Corporate practice.

This recognition reflects BMA's ongoing commitment to excellence and to strengthening female leadership in the legal profession.

Click here to learn more about the award.